

The Eleven Parishes are:

- Ashton Under Lyne
- Bolton
- Bury
- Deane
- Eccles
- Flixton
- Manchester
- Middleton
- Prestwich cum Oldham
- Radcliffe
- Rochdale

Eleven Parishes of the Hundred of Salford
Around 1800
(South East Lancashire)

10 Miles

Key

R is the Parish of Radcliffe
+ denotes the Mother Church of the Parish

Note 1: Prestwich and Oldham form a single parish -- Prestwich cum Oldham

Note 2: Some parishes controlled areas that were not contiguous. This is shown by the sharing of colour. Middleton has 7 pieces, Bury 3 pieces, Bolton 2 pieces, Prestwich cum Oldham 2 pieces.

Note 3: Aspull is a township in the Salford Hundred, but attached ecclesiastically to Wigan parish in the West Derby Hundred

Map adapted from that in "A History of the County of Lancashire Volume 4". ((Victoria County History Series)

Harry A. King, San Diego, October 18, 2014

Cheshire